

No.1 investor in Nigerian Stock Market Trials emerges with gain of 283% in 6 months.

Jan 16 (Lagos) – Nigeria’s 1st ever stock market trials or a simulation was introduced to everyone by financial website www.easykobo.com in June last year. Since then thousands of current and potential investors signed up for the free service which is designed to help people understand how stocks respond to company financials and other factors such as announcements, news and basic marketplace sentiment. The first season of the stock trials ended in December 2012 with no. investor winning IPAD while runner-ups won cash prizes. Season 2 is set to begin shortly on the easykobo.com financial website.

The no.1 investor used alias ‘NINJA’ to compete in the stock trials and made some amazing trades. He invested in a lot of small cap companies that regular investors usually tend to ignore and focus only on the big financial companies. His full portfolio is added below to everyone can see what is possible in the Nigerian stock market investing at the moment.

The no.2 player used an aggressive ‘buy and sell’ strategy over the six month period and achieved a Return on Investment of 93% - he goes by the name of ‘1himself’ on easykobo.com website.

The no.3 player deployed a defensive ‘buy & hold” strategy and essentially did his research and picked some solid stocks to finish with a ROI of 60% in the six month period.

The prize giving ceremony was held in Lagos last week and players came from out of town into Lagos to meet with the easykobo.com team and discuss their strategies and collect their prizes.

The next season of Nigerian stock market trials starts shortly so if you are interested in learning about stock investing – it’s your chance to sign up for free and join this fun learning experience. You do not need to deposit any money to take part in stock trials.
